CERTIFICATION OF INCORPORATION
of
KOWLOON BOWLING GREEN CLUB

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT KOWLOON BOWLING GREEN CLUB is this day incorporated under the Hongkong Companies Ordinances, 1911 and 1925, and that this Company is limited.

Given under my hand and Seal of Office this Sixteenth day of August in the Year of our Lord, One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-six.

NISBET,

(Sgd.) HUGH A.

Registrar of Companies
Hongkong.

KOWLOON BOWLING GREEN CLUB

(Under Section 21 of the Companies Ordinance 1911)

WHEREAS it has been proved to me that the Kowloon Bowling Green Club, which is about to be registered under the Companies Ordinances 1911-1925, as an Association Limited by guarantee, is formed for the purpose of promoting objects contemplated by the 21st Section of the Companies Ordinance, 1911 and that it is the intention of the said Club that the income and property of the Association whencesoever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Association as set out in the Memorandum of Association of the said Club, and that no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly by way of dividend or bonus or otherwise however by way of profits to the persons who at any time are or have been Members of the said Association or to any person claiming through any of them.

Now therefore I, Sir Cecil Clementi, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Governor and Commander-in-chief of the Colony of Hongkong and its Dependencies and Vice-Admiral of the same, in pursuance of powers in me vested, and in consideration of provisions and subject to the conditions contained in the Memorandum of Association of the said Club, as subscribed by seven members thereof on the first day of June 1926, do by this my Licence direct the Kowloon Bowling Green Club to be registered with limited liability without the addition of the word "Limited" to the name.

Given under my hand and the Public Seal of the Colony at Victoria in the Colony of Hongkong this fourth day of July, 1926.

(Sgd.) C. CLEMENTI.

25. The accounts shall be made-up to 31st December each year and an annual Statement of Accounts including a balance sheet shall be prepared in accordance with sound accounting practice by the Treasurer, or by accountants acting on the Committee's instructions. The Statement of Accounts shall be audited by Certified Public Accountants appointed at each annual general meeting and, following the approval of them by the Committee, shall be signed by two members of the Committee on its behalf.
26. (1) The Councillors shall from time to time, in accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Club in general meeting such income and expenditure accounts balance sheets and reports as are required by the Ordinance.
- (2) A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed to it) which is to be laid before the Association in general meeting together with a copy of the Committee's report and a copy of the auditor's report, shall not less than 21 days before the date of the meeting be sent to every member of the Club.

Provided that this article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person of whose address the Club is not aware or who is an absent member of the Club.

27. If the Club at any time in general meeting shall resolve to raise a capital loan, the Committee shall thereupon be empowered to borrow for the prescribed purposes such an amount under best possible terms and conditions and upon such security as shall be specified in the resolution. The Committee shall make all such dispositions of the Club's property or any part thereof and enter into such agreements in relation thereto as the Committee may deem proper for giving security for such loans. All Members of the Club, whether they voted on such resolution, and all persons becoming Members of the Club after the passing of such resolution and all others who may by virtue of these Articles be entitled to the privileges and the use of the property of the Club, shall be deemed to have assented to the same as if they had voted in favour of such resolution and shall be bound thereby.
28. Subject to the express provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and to any Bye-laws made by authority of the Articles of Association, all Members shall be entitled to use in common the premises and property of the Club and to be supplied with meals, refreshments, liquors, services and any other items provided by the Club for the use of Members at charges determined by the Committee from time to time.

Ordinary Members

30. (1) Admission of ordinary members to the Club shall be by ballot conducted by the Balloting Committee.

- (2) Candidates must be proposed by one Member to whom the candidate shall be personally known and seconded by another, both of whom shall have been Members of the Club for at least one year. Applications for admission must be in writing and be signed by the candidate, his proposer and seconder. Applications shall be addressed to the Secretary and shall be in such form as the Committee may from time to time determine.
 - (3) No member of the, Balloting Committee may propose or second a candidate for admission as an ordinary member of the Club save with the approval of the General Committee.
31. Ordinary members shall pay entrance fees and monthly subscriptions of amounts fixed by general meeting from time to time.
32.
 - (1) The Balloting Committee shall consist of the General Committee and five other members of the Club elected at each annual general meeting. Vacancies occurring in this Committee shall be filled by the General Committee by co-opting Members to it.
 - (2) The Vice President of the Club shall be the Chairman of the Balloting Committee. In his absence the members of the Balloting Committee present at any meeting shall elect from their number a Chairman who shall officiate at such meeting. Five members present at any meeting of the Balloting Committee shall comprise a quorum.
 - (1) All applications for admission as ordinary members shall be presented by the Secretary to the General Committee at its first meeting after the receipt by the Secretary of such forms. The Committee shall decide whether the application is in order to be forwarded to the Balloting Committee.
 - (2) The Secretary shall maintain a register of applications for membership in order by date of receipt by him.
 - (3) The Committee shall regulate from time to time the number of registered candidates who are to be considered for admission by the Balloting Committee at any time taking cognizance of the capacity of the Club's various facilities.
 - (1) Not less than 21 days before a meeting of the Balloting Committee, the application forms for those candidates who are to be considered at the meeting shall be posted in the Clubhouse.
 - (2) The Balloting Committee Chairman shall cause to be forwarded to each candidate whose application for membership has been posted in the Clubhouse a notice informing him of the date, time and venue of a Balloting Committee meeting which he is required to attend. Accompanying this notice shall be a pro forma invoice for the entrance fee and the first month's subscription.

- (3) A candidate shall be entitled to use the Clubhouse, grounds, excluding the car park, and facilities and to purchase refreshments during the time his application form is posted but his sponsors shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts incurred by the candidate during the period from the posting of his application form until a decision is made by the Balloting Committee on his admission.
 - (4) In the event a candidate is unable to appear before the Balloting Committee he should so inform the Balloting Committee in writing with an explanation for his inability to appear and he may be re-invited to a subsequent meeting of the Balloting Committee but only one such reinvitation will be issued.
- 35.
- (1) While application forms of candidates are posted, the ballot on the applicants shall remain open. Members of the Balloting Committee who are unable to attend the meeting at which these candidates are to be considered may record their votes in the office and shall sign the Ballot Register recording their votes.
 - (2) At the Balloting Committee meeting the votes of those members present shall be cast whereupon the ballot will close. Members of the Balloting Committee present shall sign the Ballot Register recording their votes.
 - (3) No member of the Balloting Committee, whether voting at the meeting, or prior to it, shall, under any circumstance, vote by proxy.
 - (4) The ballot box will be opened in the presence of the Balloting Committee at the meeting and the result of the ballot shall be announced. The number of votes against admission of any candidate shall not be divulged by the Balloting Committee.
 - (5) A ballot shall consist of at least eight votes and one against vote in four shall deny that candidate admission.
 - (6) In the event of a ballot containing less than eight votes the ballot shall be declared null and void. The candidates shall be informed of the situation and a further ballot shall be arranged but without the presence of the candidates being required a second time.
 - (7) On announcement of his election as a member, a candidate shall pay, forthwith, the fees due to the Club by him in accordance with the pro forma invoice previously forwarded to him.
36. On the election of an ordinary member, he shall be so notified in writing and a copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and of the Bye Laws of the Club shall be forwarded to him.
37. In the event of a newly-elected ordinary member failing to pay the dues prescribed in Article 35 (7) within two weeks of his election the Committee may erase his name from the list of Members unless he shall justify the delay to the satisfaction of the Committee. Notice of the erasure shall be given to the proposer and seconder who shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts incurred by the former candidate up to the time of his name being removed from the list of Members but excluding the entrance fee and first month's subscription which will not be chargeable in the case of the removal of the defaulting Member's name from the membership list.

38. (1) A candidate who has failed to gain admission to the Club shall be so notified in writing but the Committee shall not be obliged to give reasons for the fact.
(2) A candidate proposed but not elected shall not be proposed again within six months of the date of the meeting resulting in his non-acceptance nor shall he make use of the Clubhouse, grounds or facilities.
39. Members changing their places of residence or postal addresses shall notify the Secretary of the change furnishing him with a new address to which correspondence may be sent. All items forwarded by post to a Member's last known address shall be considered as being received by the Member.
40. No Member shall participate in any of the advantages of the Club or vote upon any question at a general meeting until his entrance fee, subscription and any other claim the Club may have against him have been paid.
41. The rights and privileges of a Member shall be personal to himself. They shall not be transferred by his own act or by operation of law and shall cease upon his death or upon his ceasing from any cause to be a Member under the provisions of these Articles provided that the Committee may, at their discretion, offer continuing membership of the Club to the spouse of a deceased Member.
42. A Member desiring to resign his membership shall give one month's notice, in writing, to the Secretary.
43. Any Member whose membership is terminated for any reason whatever shall, nevertheless, remain liable for all debts outstanding in his account with the Club at the time of his ceasing to be a Member.

Permanent Members

44. (1) Up to a maximum of 50 ordinary members of good standing may, upon application to and the approval of the Committee, elect to become Permanent Members of the Club on payment of a lump sum which shall be fixed from time to time by the Committee. Permanent Members, having paid such lump sum, shall be relieved of the liability of paying future monthly subscriptions during their lifetimes but shall remain responsible for any other charges levied on members from time to time.
(2) For the purpose of calculating the amount of the lump sum payable to qualify for

Permanent Membership, applicants will be divided into age groupings as follows: -

Up to 35 years;
36 to 45 years;
46 to 55 years;
Over 55 years

and account will be taken of monthly subscription trends.

Life Members

45. A general meeting may, on the recommendation of the Committee, elect to life membership ordinary members who have given especial service to the Club or otherwise brought distinction or honour to the Club. Life members shall be exempt from payment of further fees or subscriptions but shall continue to be responsible for payment for services given or purchases made in the Club.

Honorary Members

46. A general meeting may, on the recommendation of the Committee, elect to honorary membership any person of distinction who is not otherwise a member of the Club. Honorary members shall be exempt from payment of the usual fees for entrance and monthly subscription but shall be responsible for payment for services given or purchases made in the Club.

Corporate Nominees

47. (1) The General Committee shall determine from time to time the number of Corporate Transferable Debenture Holders. A business organization may obtain one or more Corporate Transferable Debentures on payment of a fee fixed at the time by the Club's General Committee. A Corporate Transferable Debenture Holder shall have the right to nominate two members of its staff for each Debenture held, to use the facilities of the club. Each nominee, when approved by the Committee, may use the facilities of the club without payment of an entrance fee but must pay all other dues applicable to Ordinary Members. The Rules of the Club shall apply equally to Corporate Transferable Debenture Holders and their nominees as to Members. Corporate Transferable Debenture Holders may transfer their Debentures with the prior written approval of the General Committee and on payment to the Club of a transfer fee to be fixed from time to time by the General Committee in its absolute discretion.
- (2) The General Committee shall determine from time to time the number of Individual Transferable Debenture Holders. An Individual may obtain an Individual Transferable Debenture on payment of a fee fixed from time to time by the General Committee in its absolute discretion. An Individual Transferable Debenture Holder shall have the right to use the Club facilities without payment of an entrance fee but must pay all other dues applicable to Ordinary Members. The rules of the Club shall apply equally to Individual Transferable Debenture Holders as to Members. Individual Transferable Debenture Holders may transfer their Debenture with the prior written approval of the Committee and on payment to the Club of a transfer fee to be fixed from time to time by the General Committee in its absolute discretion.

- (3) The exiting Ordinary members shall have the right to convert their Ordinary Membership into an Individual Transferable Debenture Holder membership upon application and payment of a fee to be determined by the General Committee from time to time.

Non-Voting Members

- (1) A candidate proposed as an ordinary member of the club may signify on the application for membership that he wishes to pay by instalments the entrance fee current at the time of his application.
- (2) Payment shall be by way of a deposit payable forthwith upon the candidate being elected as a member with the balance, plus a reasonable allowance for administration costs, payable by equal monthly instalments over the following 30 months.
- (3) Upon admission as a member a candidate electing to pay the entrance fee by instalments shall not, until such time as the final instalment is duly paid, attend any general meetings or have any vote or voice in the affairs of the Club, including election to the Committee, the nominations of persons for membership of the Club, the use of the carpark and shall not become an absent member. Subject thereto Articles of Association and any Bye-laws made by authority of the Articles of Association shall apply to non-voting members as to ordinary members.
- (4) The number and amount of instalments, the period during which instalments are payable, whether a premium should be payable by candidates in return for being able to pay entrance fees by instalments and any other conditions considered appropriate shall be determined from time to time by members in general meeting.

Sporting Members

- (1) Candidate applying under this arrangement shall be recognised bowlers (e.g. bowling regularly in a league competition)

- (2) Members who join as Sporting members can enjoy all the facilities of the Club but have no voting rights for the first two years.
- (3) Joining procedures are the same as those applicable to applicants who wish to join as ordinary members. Upon acceptance by the Balloting Committee, successful applicants are required to sign an undertaking to bowl for the Kowloon Bowling Green Club on a regular basis for a period decided by the General Committee in conjunction with the current Sporting Membership Policy.
- (4) The Sporting Membership Policy shall be determined and revised by the General Committee from time to time but may be set aside by a Special Resolution at a general meeting of the Club.

Absent Members

48. Any Member leaving Hong Kong for a period in excess of one month, irrespective of his intended date of return, shall be entitled, on written notice to the Secretary, to have his membership status changed from ordinary to absent. A fee fixed by General Meeting from time to time will be charged for this service. Absent membership is not available to Members who continue to reside in Hong Kong.
49. An absent Member shall, within one month of his return to Hong Kong, notify the Secretary in writing of his return and of his wish to resume his membership whereupon he may immediately commence again to use the Club's facilities.
50. Should a returned Member fail to reactivate his ordinary membership in accordance with Article 49 he must seek re-admission in the manner described in Article 30 but, in such cases, the Committee may, at their discretion, reduce or remit the entrance fee.

Temporary Members

51. Persons over the age of 21 years who may be temporarily visiting Hong Kong may be admitted by the Committee to the privileges of the Club as temporary members on the introduction of a Member, seconded by another Member, for a maximum period of three months and shall pay the same subscriptions in the same fashion as ordinary members but will not be required to pay any entrance fees. A temporary member shall not attend any general meetings or have any vote or voice in the affairs of the Club. The proposer and seconder of a temporary member shall be jointly and severally responsible for all debts contracted him.

Junior Members

52. (1) The Committee may, at their discretion, grant to the children of Members under the age of 21 years the privilege of junior membership and shall, likewise, have the power to restrict or to withdraw the said privileges wholly or in part as they see fit. Junior members may be divided into such categories as the Committee shall determine. The subscription payable by the Member parent whose child or member of whose household has been granted junior membership shall be such sum for each category of junior member as the Club shall decide in general meeting.
- (2) The Committee may, at their discretion, restrict or withdraw the right of Members' children under the age of 21 years to use the facilities of the Club.

VISITORS AND GUESTS

53. A visitor to Hong Kong may be introduced to the privileges of the Club by a proposing and a seconding Member for a maximum period of two weeks by signing him into the Visitors' Book retained in the office. The visitor shall have full use of the Club's facilities, except the car park, but must pay for any purchases by means of cash coupons. A visitor shall pay neither entrance fee nor monthly subscription and has no voice in any of the Club's affairs.
54. Residents of Hong Kong may be introduced to the Club as guests by members on such conditions as the Committee may decide and subject to the provisions of the Bye-laws.
55. The Committee, at their discretion and without being required to give any reason therefore, may at any time restrict or withdraw the privileges accorded to visitors or guests either wholly or partly.

DUES AND PENALTIES

56. Accounts of Members shall be made-up to the end of each month and be promptly despatched to Members. Should any Members account remain unpaid on the last day of the month in which it was despatched, the name of the Member may, at the discretion of the Committee, be posted as a defaulter at such place or places within the Clubhouse as the Committee shall from time to time nominate and if his account remains unpaid at the expiration of two weeks from the day on which his name was so posted, he shall, ipso facto, cease to be a Member unless the Committee, in their sole and absolute discretion, think fit to order otherwise.
57. The Committee may, at any time and upon such conditions as they may impose, limit the credit of a Member.
58. No Member shall enjoy the privileges of the Club nor vote at any General Meeting if he is posted as a defaulter under the Rules of the Club.

59. (1) (a) If at any time the Committee shall be of the opinion that the interests of the Club so require they shall have power to suspend the rights of any Member to use the Club's facilities or any part of them for a period not exceeding six months, but the Committee may waive such suspension or part thereof at their discretion, in the light of circumstances. No Member shall be so suspended unless a resolution to that effect shall have been carried by a majority of at least two thirds of the Members actually present at a meeting of the Committee specially convened for that purpose.
- (b) It shall be the duty of the Committee to take immediate cognizance of any infraction of the Rules of the Club by any Member.
- (2) If the Committee shall be of the opinion that the conduct of any Member be such as to endanger the character or good order of the Club or, if any Member shall appear to the Committee to have wilfully acted contrary to the Rules of the Club, they may call a general meeting or at least ten Members may requisition the Committee to call a general meeting at which the question of the expulsion of the offending Member shall be submitted provided that prior notice shall have been given to the Member that his conduct will be brought before a general meeting in order that he may appear in his defence.
- (3) If a majority of not less than three-quarters of the Members present and entitled to vote agree that the actions of the offending Member calls for expulsion from the Club he shall cease to be a Member of the Club forthwith and notification thereof shall be promptly sent to him by the Secretary.
60. If any Member shall be convicted of an indictable offence or become bankrupt or make a composition or arrangement with his creditors, he shall thereupon cease to be a Member of the Club but the Committee shall have the power, at their discretion, to reinstate him on such terms as they may deem appropriate.

GENERAL MEETINGS

61. The Club shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Club and that of the next. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the committee shall appoint but it shall be held as soon as practicable after the 1st January and not later than 31st March.
62. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
63. The Committee may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 113 of the Ordinance. If at any time there are not within Hong Kong sufficient members of the Committee capable of acting to form a quorum, any member of the Committee or any two Members of the Club may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Committee. Every such requisition, signed by all the requisitionists, shall be sent to the Secretary at the Club and must state the objects of the proposed meeting.

64. The Committee shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within 21 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition for a day not more than 28 days after the date on which the notice convening the meeting is given and, if they shall neglect to do so the requisitionists may themselves convene the meeting but any meeting so convened shall not be held after the expiration of three months from the said date.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

65. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least 21 days' notice in writing and a meeting of Members of the Club, other than the annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution, shall be called by at least 14 days' notice in writing. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Club in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the articles of the Club, entitled to receive such notices from the Club.
66. Provided that a meeting of the Members shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this article be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed: -
 - (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority of 95% of the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat.

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

67. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Committee and auditors, the election of Committee members in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.
68. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and continues to be present at the conclusion of the meeting; save as herein otherwise provided, two Members present in person shall be a quorum.
69. If within thirty minutes after the time appointed for any general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day, time and place in the next week, or to such other day, time and place as the Committee may determine and if, at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Members present shall be a quorum.
70. The President of the Club shall preside as chairman at every general meeting or, if he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting or is unwilling to act or is absent from Hong Kong or has given notice to the Committee of his intention not to attend the meeting, the Committee members present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. If at any meeting no member of the Committee is willing to act as chairman or if no member of the Committee is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present shall choose one of their numbers to be chairman of the meeting.
71. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business transacted at an adjourned meeting.
72. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded: -
 - (a) by the chairman; or
 - (b) by at least two Members present in person or by proxy; or
 - (c) by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting.

- (d) Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Club's meetings shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolution.
 - (e) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
73. Except as provided in article 75, if a poll is demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
74. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which a poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
75. After a proposal has been rejected at a General Meeting the same may not be brought up again as a proposal until six months have elapsed.
76. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman, or on the question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken as such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which the poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

77. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all moneys payable by him to the Club in his capacity as a Member, and which have been outstanding for more than one month after they fell due for payment, have been paid.
78. (1) Every Member shall have one vote and any Member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting shall be entitled to appoint another person (whether a Member or not) as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him and a proxy so appointed shall have the same right as the member to speak at the meeting provided that a proxy shall not be entitled to vote except on a poll and provided further that no single person shall be permitted to act as the proxy for more than three Members.
- (2) It shall be the responsibility of the Member intending to appoint another person as his proxy to determine by making enquiry at the registered office of the Club whether such person is permitted to act as his proxy.
- (3) In the event that a person has been appointed to act a proxy by three Members, any further appointments in addition to the three already held shall be deemed invalid.

79. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
80. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the registered office of the Club at 123 Austin Road, Kowloon, or at such other place within Hong Kong as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and, in default, the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
81. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
82. Any form issued to a Member by the Committee for use by him for appointing a proxy to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be such as to enable the Member, according to his intention, to instruct the proxy to vote in favour or against or, in default of instructions, to exercise his discretion in respect of each resolution dealing with any special business to be transacted at the meeting.
83. In Art. 82. "special business" means: -
 - (a) all business transacted at any extraordinary general meeting; and
 - (b) all business transacted at an annual general meeting except the consideration of accounts and the reports of the Committee and auditors, the election of directors in place of those retiring and the appointment of, and fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.
84. Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance and Article 87 below, nothing in these articles shall be altered or varied, nor shall additions be made thereto, except at an extraordinary general meeting of not less than fifteen Members entitled to vote to be convened specially for that purpose.
85. Subject to section 165 of the Ordinance, every member of the Committee, Treasurer, Secretary and Officers for the time being of the Club shall be indemnified out of the funds and assets of the Club against all liabilities and obligations which they, or purported performance of their duties in relation to the Club other than any liability which attaches to them by law in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust. Further, they shall be indemnified from the funds and assets of the Club against any liability incurred by them in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in their favour or in which they are acquitted or in connection with any application under section 358 of the Ordinance in which relief is granted to them by the Court. Provided that none of the funds or assets of the Club shall be applied in payment of the whole or part of any fine or penalty imposed upon any person by sentence or order of a Court of Justice.
86. Any question on the interpretation of the foregoing Articles of Association and subsequent Bye-laws shall be left to the Committee whose decision on any point shall be final provided always that in cases of differences arising between these Articles of Association, subsequent Bye-laws and the Hong Kong Government's Companies Ordinance, Chapter 32, the latter shall prevail.

87. No addition alteration or amendment shall be made to or in the Memorandum of Association or these Articles of association for the time being in force, unless such alteration has previously been submitted to and approved by the Registrar of Companies in writing.
88. The provisions of Clause 7 of the Memorandum of Association relating to the winding-up or dissolution of the Club shall have effect and be observed as if the same were repeated in these Articles.
