SPORTING MEMBERSHIP POLICY

Members who join as sporting members can enjoy a reduced joining fee and all the facilities of the Club but has no voting rights for the first two years.

The current joining fee for Sporting member is HK$ 8,000. If requested, payment of the joining fee may be spread over a period of two years, commencing from the date of joining with monthly subscription remaining the same as Ordinary Members.

Prescribed Criteria for Applying for Sporting Membership

Individuals who wish to apply under this arrangement shall be recognised bowlers (e.g. bowling regularly in a league competition).

Procedures for Joining

The applicant shall be introduced to the Club by a proposer and a seconder. His or her application will be vetted by a Sub-committee (the Sports Membership Sub-committee) comprising of the Bowls Convenor, Assistant Bowls Convenor, and the team captains of the Men's Summer League. The Sub-committee will make recommendation to the General Committee with regard to the eligibility of the applicant. Based on the recommendation of the Sub-committee, the General Committee shall decide whether an application to join the Club under this arrangement should be accepted or not.

All the other procedures are the same as those applicable to applicants who wish to join as ordinary members.

Upon acceptance by the Balloting Committee, successful applicants are required to sign an undertaking to bowl for the Kowloon Bowling Green Club on a regular basis for the first two years.

At the expiration of the two year period, the Sub-committee will submit to the General Committee their report in respect of the applicant's performance of his or her undertaking during the past two years. When it is satisfied that the Member has complied with the terms of the undertaking, the Member shall become an ordinary member of the Club. However, if it is considered that he or she fails to comply with the terms of the undertaking without reasonable explanation, the General Committee has the full power to cancel his sporting membership and there will be no refund of the joining fee which he or she has already paid.
